

Focused on the Road Ahead

Now that we have completed the 2019 ACA reporting year, it's time to focus on 2020!

As the impact of COVID-19 pandemic evolves and companies continue to take action to adjust for the health and safety of their workforce, many are faced with employee furloughs or terminations. As your partner in the ACA process, we are committed to providing information to help navigate ACA compliance during this time of uncertainty.

To help employers navigate the road ahead, we will host an ACA 2020 overview with a specific focus on the hours measurement process. With the economic slowdown associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, many employers may need to rethink their approach to this process as they implement different workforce procedures.

Selerix will continue to monitor developments on any IRS regulatory updates or changes as they become available.
